MIRACLE

seventy-three...reaching out...

A high-contrast black and white photograph featuring the silhouette of a multi-tiered tower, likely a bell tower or steeple, against a bright sky. The tower has a pointed roof with a weather vane on top. Two prominent, bright lens flare streaks cross the image diagonally, one from the upper left and one from the upper right, creating a starburst effect near the tower's peak. The overall composition is dramatic and minimalist.

The purpose of every school of higher learning is to reach out academically. We at Cedarville try to do this. Sometimes we fail, but more times we succeed. We read books, type papers, and cram for exams. All this is done to be made "academically aware". But this is to no avail unless we see our purpose.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

II Tim. 2:15

academically . . . . .

physically . . .

When we reach out physically we extend ourselves to the limit and then beyond. We fail to see the idea of quitting. We push ourselves to do the best. We strive for perfection. It all seems so far away. Yet we continue and never give up. For if we stop, then have we failed.

At long last we reach out spiritually. We seek a God that is true and honest. We find a God that is a helper and a friend.

We reach for Him at all times. He is not just at chapel five days a week; nor is He at Alford only on Sunday morning. He is everywhere at all times. While we reach out for Him, He reaches out for us.

cedar?

What was the election of Cedar What?? It was a hot November night in the gym. It was the Classics Quartet. It was an assassination attempt. It was the U.E.W.A.A. as secret service men. It was promises. It was a wild motorcycle ride. It was a man short of stature. It was a women with a drawl. It was the conservatives against the liberals. It was the Dixie and Guru. It was Phipps and Frank. It was a Cedarville College student body totally involved and excited.

What was Cedar What?? It was decent!

christian service

When someone reaches out spiritually they are genuinely concerned. At Cedarville every student is given this opportunity through the Christian Service Dept.

Over sixty percent of the student body voluntarily become involved in activities relating to Christian service. These activities range from work in detention homes to services in local rest homes.

let us bear precious seed . . .

Annually F.W. M. presents the Spring Missionary Conference. This year the organization presented the theme, "Bearing Precious Seed". The missionaries featured were: Bud Devries, Ben Kendrick, Kay Lamb, Ron Mezmar, and Dave Woodman.

The 1973 Cedarville College Choralaires, under the direction of Lyle J. Anderson, presented over twenty-five concerts in Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Washington, D.C. Their concert consisted of both classical and sacred music.

With its own distinctive style, the Concert Choir has been recognized for its choral music performances marked by fine taste and perceptive interpretations. The group has performed before a variety of audiences in churches, high schools, state prisons, and other college campuses.

miracle 1973

Now that it is all over, the real reaching just begins. All those friends and people you know will no longer be there. There will have to be someone else; and there will.

That's the way it will always be. As long as you are willing to reach out there will be someone there.

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 1999). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health care in the community, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has also published a strategy for mental health care in prisons, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.

Put the perfect day on ice.
Pour everything you've got into a game of volleyball,
baseball or football —
then put it all back with an ice-cold Pepsi-Cola.

WAYNE'S SUPER VALUE

10 NORTH MAIN

Cedarville, Ohio

sometimes i have reached out for people,
places,
or things
and have been disappointed.
all of these are so temporary.
yet the emphasis at cedarville is on
a person who is permanent.
in Him i have never been disappointed . . .
when i reached out He was there . . .
He still is there.
His name is Jesus Christ.
we all can depend on Him.
